

CINCINNATI CHRISTIAN UNIVERSITY
DEPARTMENT OF BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

seeks a

FACULTY MEMBER IN CLINICAL MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING

Cincinnati Christian University invites applications for a full-time faculty position in Clinical Mental Health Counseling to begin with the Fall 2019 semester. The Behavioral Sciences department at CCU includes both an undergraduate program in psychology and a CACREP-accredited Master of Arts in Counseling program, offering a distinctive educational experience in an urban setting. CCU welcomes exceptional applicants who value the university's mission and are committed to academic excellence.

The mission of Cincinnati Christian University is to provide a Christ-centered, liberal arts education taught with a Christian worldview in students' chosen field of study. Founded in 1924, CCU is committed to the restoration of undenominational New Testament Christianity and is supported by individuals and churches with similar commitment.

Responsibilities: The position will call for teaching, advising students, supervising clinical work, initiating research, providing administrative leadership for the overall department, and engaging in university and professional service.

Qualifications: The qualified individual will have an earned doctorate in counselor education with preference given to those from a CACREP-accredited program; be licensed or license-eligible as an LPC or LPCC in Ohio; have an active or evidence of potential for an active research program. Preferred candidates will have experience with diverse populations, teaching in higher education, and strong knowledge of CACREP accreditation requirements. Preference will also be given to individuals with administrative experience. Faculty members at CCU are to adhere to the university's Statement of Faith for employment purposes, as posted on the university's webpage. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply.

Salary and Rank: Will be commensurate with educational level and experience.

Proposed Starting Date: July 1, 2019, is the effective contract date and reporting date for a candidate hired for the Fall 2019 semester.

Application Procedure: Send 1) curriculum vitae; 2) a letter of interest describing teaching philosophy, fit with CCU's goal of integrating faith into counseling, research agenda, and areas of expertise; and 3) names of three references to:

Human Resources Director
hr@CCUniversity.edu
Cincinnati Christian University
2700 Glenway Avenue
Cincinnati, OH 45204-3200
Ph: (513) 244-8447
Fx: (513) 244-8113

Complete applications will be considered immediately and the position will remain open until filled.